—WE TAKE OFF THE BLIND FOLDS—

It takes hard work and courage for teammates to hold each other accountable. Candid feedback is as hard to give as it is to hear. Our Team Interventions and Team Assessments are designed to shine the spotlight on barriers and pinpoint assets that are needed to become a high-performing team with backbone.

—WE'RE GMs. NOT CHEERLEADERS—

We're not here to wave pom-poms on the sidelines during preseason. We're in this all the way to the championship. So, while our Management By Adventure, Top Team Teambuilding, and Team Leadership Programs are high-energy, engaging, and – we'll admit it – fun, we understand that feel-good games aren't going to build a Courageous Team without in-depth analysis, focused follow-up, and a consistent strategy for on-going success.

FIVE SIGNS YOUR TEAM NEEDS MORE COURAGE

1. CYA rules the day.
2. Leaders are insulated from the truth.
3. Bureaucrats have more power than innovators.
4. People are hung for making smart mistakes.
5. Fear is the primary motivator.

"Giant Leap had the uncanny ability to identify the issues our teams were wrestling with. Their programs seemed perfectly tailored to our firm and we saw immediate improvement as a result of their efforts."
